Product Care

Why is maintenance necessary?

It is critical to maintain stainless surfaces in order to maximize product life and corrosion resistance.

What supplies are needed?

This is simply accomplished by dampening a clean cloth in warm water with a tiny bit of detergent or soap.

How to care?

To begin, use a wet cloth to remove coarse grit and grime from the product to be cared for.

Next, thoroughly rinse your cloth. Wiping effectively requires gently rubbing the substance or ingredients.

Attention!

Product maintenance should not be performed using carbon steel brushes or wool wire.

Product Warranty
